

Bio of Speaker & Bible Study Leader

Speaker:

Robert Shropshire

Rob Shropshire began working with Presbyterian World Service & Development (PWS&D) in March 2013. He is responsible for coordinating the sponsorship of refugees by PCC congregations and presbyteries, and for a number of special projects aimed at further strengthening PWS&D's work.

Rob has worked in refugee response, international development, and international human rights since 1987, including 14 years with the (Anglican) Primate's World Relief and Development Fund in Toronto and 7 years with Equitas – International Centre for Human Rights Education in Montreal. He volunteers on the refugee committee of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Toronto.

Bible Study Leader:

Rev. Dr. Lynda Reid is blessed to have supportive colleagues and friends. Retired for five years, Lynda is more involved with her church family Knox Oshawa. Music is God's gift that sustains her soul. Lynda sings with her church choir, Ontario Presbyterian Chorus and the County Town Singers in Oshawa. Lynda, Jeff and cat, Gally live in Ajax.
